

IMPORT AND EXPORT CODE (IEC) CERTIFICATE

Barkat & Co. streamlines the procurement of Import Export Code (IEC) certificates from the Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT), enabling seamless cross-border trade.

CORE SERVICES & SCOPE OF WORK

Our professional advisory services encompass a complete spectrum of regulatory and planning offerings:

- Profile Verification: Validating entity PAN, bank account details, and business address credentials.
- DGFT Portal Documentation: Filing Form ANF 2A electronically on the DGFT portal with digital signature authentication.
- Classification & Guidance: Mapping export/import categories and guiding on customs compliance requirements.
- Profile Modification: Managing timely updates for address changes, bank additions, or line of business modifications.

KEY BENEFITS FOR ENTERPRISES

ADVANTAGE	OPERATIONAL IMPACT
Global Market Access	Mandatory license enabling businesses to import goods into India and export products worldwide.
Lifetime Validity	IEC is issued as a lifetime registration with no requirement for periodic renewal.
Customs & Bank Clearance	Required by customs authorities and banks to process international wire transfers and shipments.

APPLICATION & ADVISORY PROCESS

- Document Gathering: Collecting company PAN, bank certificate, and address proof.
- Online Application: Submitting application via DGFT single-window portal.
- Fee Payment: Clearing statutory government processing fees.
- IEC Issuance: Downloading the official digital IEC certificate.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS)

1. Is IEC required for all international shipments?

Yes, any entity engaged in importing or exporting commercial goods from/to India must possess a valid IEC.

2. Does an IEC certificate expire?

No, IEC is a lifetime registration, though annual electronic profile confirmation is required on the DGFT portal.
